Tips to SAVE MONEY on Summer Travel

Do you have plans to pack up and head out this summer? Consider these money-saving tips and tricks before booking your getaway.

Book early. Domestic airfare is typically at its cheapest about two months before the departure date, so consider booking as early in the season as possible.

Be flexible. The best way to save money is to have a bit of leeway with dates. With peak travel typically falling on weekends and holidays, leaving a day or two earlier or later could save you hundreds of dollars in airfare.

Know your apps. Utilize travel apps to help you save money, including Dealray for cheap flights, AirHelp to help you get paid for canceled, delayed or overbooked flights, AutoSlash for getting the best car rental rate, Roomer to find discount hotel rooms, and Wego to search over 700 sites for the lowest prices currently available for airfare and lodging.

Be open-minded. Consider destinations that may not have previously been on your radar. Using a search tool, such as KAYAK Explore, can help you find cheap travel to places that you may not have otherwise considered.

Be skeptical. Compare prices on bundled vacations to what it would cost to purchase airfare, lodging and rental cars separately. Some useful sites for comparing prices include Google Flights, Skyscanner, and the airline's and hotel's websites, too.
